

The First Day of the Week

Rick Dubose
November 22, 2015 AM Service

Acts 20:7, 1 Corinthians 16:2, 2 Kings 13:18-19, Hebrews 10:24-25

Acts 20:7 KJV

And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

Acts 20:7 NIV

On the first day of the week we came together to break bread.

Paul spoke to the people and, because he intended to leave the next day, kept on talking until midnight.

1 Corinthians 16:2 NIV

On the first day of the week we came together to break bread. Paul spoke to the people and, because he intended to leave the next day, kept on talking until midnight.

1 Kings 13:18 NIV

Then he said, "Take the arrows," and the king took them. Elisha told him, "Strike the ground." He struck it three times and stopped.

2 Kings 13:19 NIV

The man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck the ground five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram and completely destroyed it. But now you will defeat it only three times."

What you do when you gather together has everything to do with the rest of your week

Your worship can change your outcome

We get to determine our future on Sunday Morning

If you become a full blown participant in worship
you can impact what happens the rest of the week

Communion should be a reminder of our salvation and not a requirement.

The offering should always be treated as holy as communion

The opportunity to gather together is a blessing from the Lord

If we refuse to show up on the first day of the week then we can't complain about the rest of the week

Hebrews 10:24 NIV

And let us consider how we may spur one another on towards love and good deeds.

Hebrews 10:25 NIV

Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another--and all the more as you see the Day approaching.
