Acts 16:25-31, Acts 2:39

There comes a time in your faith that you say enough is enough

We need to begin to rise up to what we are the children of the most High God

Acts 16:25

And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

Acts 16:26

And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

Acts 16:27

And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

Acts 16:28

But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

Acts 16:29

Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

Acts 16:30

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

Acts 16:31

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

Acts 2:39

For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the LORD our God shall call.

Until our family members are able to stand in their faith, we will stand in our faith on their behalf

- 1. Love them unconditionally
- 2. Give them to God
- 3. Speak into their life how God sees them and what they will become and not what you see at this time
- 4. Thank God in advance for the victory

- 5. Pray that God would break all their ungodly influences
- 6. Pray that God will send godly influences into their lives
- 7. Don't be motivated in your emotions by their emotions.

God is on their trail and will not give up
